Jane Kurek Honored at Women Aware’s 35th Anniversary
The Provident Bank Foundation executive director recognized as Community Leader Honoree

NEW BRUNSWICK, NEW JERSEY (OCTOBER 14, 2015): Jane Kurek, executive director of The Provident Bank Foundation was recognized as a Community Leader Honoree at Women Aware’s 35th Anniversary Celebration. As a result of Kurek’s efforts, The Provident Bank Foundation made its first grant to Women Aware to kick-start the new nutrition workshops for women and their children at the shelter in 2014.

“I am extremely honored to receive this recognition, and for the opportunity to help strengthen the health and wellbeing of our local families,” said Jane Kurek, executive director of The Provident Bank Foundation. “The Provident Bank Foundation was established for that purpose, of supporting organizations that provide valuable services to the community.”
About The Provident Bank Foundation
The Provident Bank Foundation was established by New Jersey’s oldest bank in 2003 to enhance the quality of life in the region through support of not-for-profit groups, institutions, schools and other organizations that provide services in communities served by Provident Bank. Since its founding, the Foundation has granted more than $19 million to not-for-profit organizations and institutions working toward stronger communities.
